"Well, Mr. Jones," said neighbor Brown,
"I'll start this very day for town,
And get a pair of Boots for me,
And also shoe my family."

So Bill went and harness Doll,
And straight to town he'll go, by go!
And stop in front of Smith's Store
Where the Boots hang o'er the door.

Bill always does what father tells.
He harness Doll and put on Bells,
And in they piled young ones and all,
Crack went the whip and off went Doll.

Doll had been living on high feed,
And started at his fastest speed,
And took Brown and his family straight,
To Paw Paw, at two-forty gait.

When, Wha, an old Doll, Bill came out when
They got to Main Street, Number Ten.
And out they jumped in front the door,
Of Post Smith's Mammoth Store.

As they went with an awful swell,
"Good morning, hope to find you well,
Said Brown as he and his young drove
Advanced to warm them at the stove."

My neighbor Jones brought me the news
How cheap you sold your Boots and Shoes,
So I resolved to come and buy
Of you my winter's full supply.

To shoe the tribe, Smith began,
Beginning first with the old man
And then the young Brown's little feet.
Were shod and fitted all complete.

The news soon spread the county round,
That just the place at length was found
Where men could save fifty per cent.
On every dollar that they spent.

Thread for 50c, a spool.
